

PROGRAM GUIDE

Fall 2012

Facebook.com/JewishBU

@JewishBU

Dear friend,

Welcome to Fall '12 at BU. This is going to be a fabulous semester chock full of meaningful Chagim, amazing events, huge celebrations, thought provoking and inspiring classes and great fun. If you take a look through this guide you'll quickly see that at Chabad there is something for everyone. And if there's something you want to do that's not listed please don't hesitate to let us know; we're always adding more events to what we have already listed.

Remember, Chabad is about you. If there is any way at all that we can be of help just ask. We're looking forward to enjoying the ride with you.

Please take a look at page 27 for information on SSS, Supper and Study with Sizzle, a much beloved program that keeps getting better! Also, check out page 8 for some fabulous Winter break options (it's not too early to start planning) , and page 11 for this semester's JLearn offerings.

Actually, check out every single page because you really don't want to miss any of the wonderful opportunities we have listed.

If you are not already receiving e-mail messages from Chabad, hurry and join our mailing list by writing info@JewishBU.com so we can keep you in the loop.

And don't forget to join us on Facebook (Facebook.com/JewishBU) and follow us on Twitter (@JewishBU) to stay up to date and never miss a heart beat at Chabad.

See you at Chabad!

Chabad of Binghamton joins the thousands of Chabad-Lubavitch centers worldwide in paying tribute to the legendary patron

Mr. Shmuel (Sami) ben Yehoshua Eliyahu Rohr

The prayers, studies, Shabbat and holiday meals, social service works and varied events are lovingly dedicated to his blessed memory.

JUST FOR FUN

JLearn is an exciting learning program offering focused mini courses which explore new realms of Jewish thought, philosophy and practice. This unique program inspires and nurtures those who crave an intellectual grasp of Judaism. Whether it's Jewish history, philosophy or digging beneath the surface of our rituals and traditions, JLearn focuses on the “why” and the “how” of Judaism. If you have advanced experience in Jewish learning, or no prior experience at all, you will find a class that is just right. Participate in a course that interests YOU.

All J-Learn class offerings will begin during the week of October 15th.

JEWISH WOMEN IN JEWISH LAW

Mrs. Rivkah Slonim

Are women marginalized in observant Jewish life? Is that charge hysterical or historical? Judge this yourself, by joining this text based exploration of what Jewish law has to say about a woman's obligation in Mitzvot. There is nothing like going straight to the source! FIVE SESSIONS

THE MOST FASCINATING AND PERPLEXING BIBLICAL SAGAS OF ALL TIME

Mrs. Rivkah Slonim

This is a fast paced, exhilarating, deep treatment of the stories in our Bible that always raise an eyebrow. Including: Rupture in Eden; Adam and Eve Defy their Creator, Rachel, Leah and Jacob; the Love Triangle, Deceit on the Death Bed: Jacob vs. Esau and Sin after Revelation; Why a Golden Calf? SIX SESSIONS

TORAH THROUGH THE AGES: DIRECT TRANSMISSION OR BROKEN TELEPHONE?

Rabbi Zalman Chein

How do we know that the Torah is true? Who has the right to interpret it? How do ancient laws apply to modern times? Find out in this fascinating course. SIX SESSION

MOVING PRAYER FROM BLA TO WOW

Mrs. Rivkah Slonim

This class will explore the heart and soul of prayer and will include a special focus on the most important prayers in our liturgy. SIX SESSIONS

JEWISH OCCASION ARTS AND FACTS
